Card of Appreciation.

We desire to extend unto our many friends our most sincere and heartfelt appreciation and thanks for the assistance and comfort they rendered to us during the severe illness of our daughter, Evelyn, who lingered on the threshold of death for many days. The kind words were an inspiration to us and helped us bear the trial as best we could.

The efforts of the physicians who administered unto our daughter and the skill they exhibited in saving her life will long be remembered by us.

To the little girl friends of Evelyn who brought so many beautiful flowers and kept the sick room more cheerful, we wish to thank especially. Their little tokens of esteem and love were a great comfort to her, and all these kindnesses shall always be fresh in our memory.

Evelyn is improving now and we hope it will not be long until she is restored to health again.

An Interesting Record.

Last Thursday afternoon Mr. C. A. Walker, who lives at Glenville, this county, and who is now eighty-seven years old, came into the News office, and from him we gathered the following story which came into his life when he was quite a young man. It has never been in print, and will be read with interest:

In 1858 he left Kentucky for the purpose of locating in Missouri, but about one year after landing in that State the gold fever broke out at Pike's Peak and he left Missouri in 1859 for that place with the view of mining for gold. He did not reach his destination for the reason he met en route a party of men who were employed by the government to haul goods from Nebraska City to Salt Lake City, and he joined them at a salary of forty dollars per month to drive across the plains. The men who employed him were known as a firm, Russell, Major & Waddle. The goods were hauled in wagons, drawn by six yoke of oxen to the wagon. There were twenty-seven wagons and that many drivers. About this time the Mormons in Utah defied the laws of the United States and soldiers had to be called to quell them.

The wagons were loaded with corn, and on this corn the freight bill was twenty dollars per hundred. The wagons were unloaded at Camp Floyd, forty miles from Salt Lake City, and the teamsters received their wages, forty dollars per month. We were three months going from Nevada City to Salt Lake City.

Seven of the teamsters, Mr. Walker being one of the number, bought a wagon and team and went to California where three and one half years were spent. Returning to Nevada he states that he worked one and one-half years. When Nevada was admitted to the Union he voted for the adoption of the State Constitution.

In 1864 he left Nevada for Kentucky, via San Francisco, Panama and New York City, a distance of 10,000 miles, landing at his childhood home, finding his mother well, who rejoiced to see him, but she was not any happier than her son, who had left the parental roof to see the world. Mr. Walker states that he endured many hardships during his travels, but that his experience was well worth the price.

You can not prevent hail-storms, but you can protect yourself against loss. Better see us before it happens. Reed Brothers.

Columbia Wins.

One of the most exciting games of base ball, played in this part of Kentucky came off at Campbellsville last Thursday afternoon. The contestants were Columbia against Campbellsville, and both clubs were in fine shape, ready for the contest. A large crowd was present, many rooters from this place going over to cheer our boys as they battled for victory. The game was exciting from the start, both clubs doing their best to come out a victor. Until the game was nearly finished, it was hard to tell how it would end, but when it closed Columbia had 2 scores and Campbellsville 1. Our boys and their backers came home in high glee and are ready to meet any other club that wants to come this way.

The Chautauqua.

The three first days of the chautauqua were not as enjoyable as the people would have liked, but the three last days were worth the price of season tickets. The lectures were first-class, every body delighted with the speakers. All three of the lectures were highly complimented, but the one Wednesday night, by Dr. Church, was a masterpiece. He interspersed a lot of humor with his rendition which kept the audience in fine humor. The subject matter was Americanism, and the part our boys played in Flanders Field and on the Argonne. He pictured many pathetic scenes, and doubtless many in the large audience were moved to tears. There are but few more gifted speakers than Dr. Church, and not one, in our judgment, who knows better how to win the plaudits of hearers.

The musical part of the program for the entire week, judging it as a whole, was extra good. Early in the beginning there were a few numbers not very highly appreciated, not that the selections were common and not well executed, but simply did not strike all the hearers. The six Royal Bell Ringers gave satisfaction. Bohumir Kryl with his band was highly enjoyed. It is acknowledged as being the finest concert organization in the United States. The Village Blacksmith played at the wind up Thursday night was out of the ordinary and it was grand. Prof. Kryl's solos on the cornet were played most charmingly. Taking the Chautauqua as a whole it was the best that has been here. The wind up furnished amusement for every body. The White and Black Minstrels were on the platform and they certainly know how to entertain.

Repairing.

I repair all makes of watches, clocks and typewriters. Work is guaranteed. I will be at my place of business, in the new Tutt Hall, the first Monday of July and every week day afterward.

Jack Cundiff, Columbia, Ky.

Mr. Ed Diddle, a native of this county, who has been with the White & Myers Chautauqua since 1914, and at this time is the platform manager, was here all last week. He is very popular with the chautauqua people and has made good from the start. He is a graduate of Center College, knows how to meet his friends, greeting them with a smile and a warm handshake. He met a large number of his old friends last week, and when he left he promised to be back next year with a better program, if possible, than the one rendered last week, which was, all things considered, the best ever pulled off in Columbia.

A car was upset last Wednesday morning about a hundred yards beyond the City building, on the Campbellsville pike. There were several in the machine, but we failed to get the name of the owner of the car. No one was seriously hurt.

Don't Forget.

All democrats should bear in mind that July 10 and 11 will be registration days and that every democrat in every precinct in every county will have to register in order to vote in the future. If you fail to register you will lose your vote. Democrats are urged to begin now to advertise this important matter. Every time you meet a democrat remind him of the two days. Pails will be open in each precinct in the county just the same as on election day. When you register once you do not have to register again unless you move from the precinct. Don't forget this.

Sam Lewis, Chairman,

Turner-- Blankenship.

On Thursday, the 15th inst., Miss Myrtle Turner and Mr. Ira Blankenship were quietly married in Jamestown, Judge Edmonds officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Turner of the Montpelier community, and is very popular with her associates. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Blankenship, of the same community, and a prosperous young farmer. We wish them much success and happiness.

Notice.

There will be an ice cream supper at W. H. Hamon's, Glensfork, Ky., next Saturday night in the interest of the Christian church. Also good band music. Come every body.

Card of Thanks.

While defeated in the Herald contest, I feel that I made a very creditable showing, which I can only attribute to the loyalty of my friends, to whom I am deeply grateful. I thank you all most sincerely.

Yours with much respect,
Rose Hunn.

Kentucky Facts.

Kentuckians who pay income tax reported total of $243,879,230 in taxable income to the United States government in 1920.

Commissions reported to the Auditor of State by Commonwealth Attorneys throughout the state in the fiscal year 1920-21 totaled $119,185 38.

The Campbellsville Band, one of the best amateur bands obtainable will entertain the crowd at the Columbia Fair Grounds on July 4th.

The screen has seen many an interesting picture but never has there been created a production more pleasing than "Rip Van Winkle," the most recent Hodkinson release made under the direction of Ward Lascelle, which comes to the Paramount Theatre, Tuesday night, July 4th. It is a gripping picturization of Washington Irving's classic and Thomas Jefferson, in the title roll, leaves nothing to be desired.

Columbia, Ky.

A gentleman was here a few days ago, wanting to buy a plot of land in the suburbs of Columbia, cut it into building lots and have a lot sale in order that the town might grow. The land was found, but it could not be bought. The best way to everlastingly kill a town is to hold your lots. The lack of enterprise keeps Columbia from being a much larger and better town than it is.

The chautauqua has come and gone. Some features of the entertainment were very good. The attendance was large throughout the week, and perfect order prevailed. Mr. Ed Diddle an Adair county man, was the platform manager, and with the exception of one or two entertainments, he started the program on time each afternoon and evening.

Base ball, races, music and all kinds of amusements at the Columbia Fair Grounds on July 4th.

If Adair County had good pikes running out Jamestown, Greensburg and Burkesville roads ten miles on each road, Columbia would be the best business town in Kentucky of its size. These roads would invite the trade, and the country people want good roads upon which to travel. The business of Columbia and the farmers of the county should inaugurate a movement for good roads.

Porch Swings at Dohoney & Dohoney.

It is not generally known that Jas. S. Hovious died near knifley several weeks ago. He was eighty years old, served in the Federal army during the civil war. The people of Columbia will remember him as the gentleman who was married to Mrs. Sallie Walker, in this town, some ten years ago. He became perfectly helpless some time before he died.

There are quite a lot of people, in the town of Columbia, who are behind on our subscription books. Please drop around and pay, as the office needs the amounts due it.

Who is looking after the registration? Has the Democrats an organization? Without it we lose. Go to work and see that the full strength of the party, women and men, are ready for the voting. Men in the county who expect in the future to become a candidate for an office, had better get busy. If you fail to register you can not vote in the future.

Miss Rose Hunn, of this place, who was in the Louisville Herald contest, made an excellent showing. She started late and her support was principally from her Adair county friends, showing that her home people hold her in the highest esteem. She received 1,562,962 votes and she feels proud to know that she had so many loyal friends.

Mrs. Albert Johnson, of Glenville, was notified about twelve days ago, that her daughter, Miss Rachel, who has been teaching in Elida, New Mexico, was quite sick. Mrs. Johnson left at once to be at her bedside, but a letter from her received a few days ago, contained the information that Miss Rachel was much better.

Spend a "Glorious Fourth" at the Columbia Fair Grounds.

Arrangements to build an iron bridge across Casey's Creek at Knifley have been practically made. Judge Jeffries informs the News that the time to begin the structure has not yet been announced, but it will be built this year. It is very much needed, and in our judgment the money cost will be judiciously expended.

Margaret, little daughter of Mrs. Daisy Hamlett, fell down the concrete steps at the home of Dr. W. J. Flowers, last Sunday afternoon, raising quite a bump upon her head. Hot clothes soon reduced the swelling, and she is now on a fair way to recovery. At first the accident was quite alarming.

Mr. J. F. Pendleton, of Greensburg was here last week, taking up sheep and cattle. He got 50 cattle in the Montpelier section and two hundred sheep in the Neatsburg country. He paid from 4 to 6 cents for cattle, and 10 and 11 cents for lambs. Mr. A. N. Bridgewater was with him.

Last Tuesday afternoon while a steady rain was falling here, a terrific hailstorm was raging below Sparks-ville. It did considerable damage to vegetation, especially corn and tobacco. A gentleman who was at the scene informs us that tobacco and corn were greatly injured.

The drug firm composed of E. C. Willis and Luther Williams, both former Adair county men, are doing an immense business at Cave City. They have just completed a commodious building, and Mr. Williams informs us that the firm has no spare time.

We publish a list of Adair County teachers, all passing the examination and are well qualified. Some of the list have already secured schools, but there are quite a number who have not as yet been employed.

Last Friday afternoon some thief stole both bulbs out of the headlights of Mr. L. L. Eubank's car. It was standing near the square. A thief is a thief whether he takes a bulb or a horse.

Only once in a while does such a picture as "Rip Van Winkle" come to the screen, and so, of course, you can not afford to miss it, July 4th, at Paramount Theatre.

All parties owing Price Chemical Co., please call and settle. We will be in Columbia July 3.
